REPORT ON SEMINAR ON RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

A seminar on research methodology was conducted by the Department of History on 22nd November 2017 at GN 44. Dr P. Jinimon, Assistant Professor, Department of History, University of Kerala was the resource person. He had delivered a speech on theoretical analysis of sources. Actually a research begins with the dependency of sources. We can approach all materials even if it provides scanty information. But its credibility and authenticity depends upon the reliable data contented in it. Resource person vividly discussed different categories of sources, its interpretations and applications on research. Our students cleared their doubts on identifying and categorising sources. The efficacy of the seminar reflected on the annual projects submitted by the students.
