

WORKSHOP ON UNDERSTANDING RESEARCH METHODS

The workshop is intended for demystifying research and research methods. It will outline the fundamentals of doing research, aimed primarily, but not exclusively, at the graduate level. It places the student experience at the centre of our endeavours by engaging learners in a range of robust and challenging discussions and exercises. The workshop will provide the graduate students an understanding of research approaches, skills, and importantly an ability to deploy them in your studies or in your professional lives. In particular, this workshop will aid to conduct research as part of their studies. The workshop material is developed to support research training for the graduate student will help them in understanding the dimensions of research work. Participation in this will not confer any academic credit.

AIM OF THE WORKSHOP

- Enlighten the process of research.
- Highlight the conceptual structure of a research design.
- Understand how to read a research paper and how to write a research proposal.

- To make students to complete the final year project submission effectively.

Areas Covered

- What Is Research and What Makes a Good Research Question?
 - PURPOSE: To familiarise the students with the nature and benefits of conducting a literature review.
- What Is a Literature Review and Why Do We Need to Do One?
 - PURPOSE: To be aware of the planning and management skills that are required in undertaking critical thinking for your research.
- Why Planning and Management Skills are important for Research?
 - PURPOSE: To be aware of the planning and management skills that are required in undertaking critical thinking for your research.
- How Do you Know you have been a good researcher at the end of a project?
 - PURPOSE: To reflect upon the value of a good question, and provide an outline research proposal.

Outcome of the Workshop

- Gains knowledge about research as whole and each of its individualistic parts.
- Understands the concept of research and its purposes.
- Understand different methods of research.

All the students joining B A Philosophy is offered a basic workshop on Understanding Research Methods

Date of Class: 12.08.2019

Number of Student Participated: 62

Evaluation Conducted: Dr. Soumya R.V.

Lecture Offered by: Dr. Remya Haridas, HoD, Philosophy, SN College, Cherthala

