When asked about the syllabus and criteria the students of the Hindi department stated that they were satisfied with our on going system. The syllabus has good balance between theory and statement. Yet we believe, we need to work on our criteria as the students could not come up with definitive suggestions on the matter. They were of the opinion that the syllabus is worthy enough for higher educational purposes

Alumni Feedback on Programme for Curriculum
Evaluation(2017-18)
Result of the feedback analysis carried out on a 5-point scale

An important idea suggested from a minority section of the Alumni, is that the curriculum and the syllable should be capable one to inculcate the free thinking power among students. However the majority express satisfaction by giving highest rate and commended the curriculum and the syllabus are enough to achieve the goal of extra learning/self learning.

The employers find the curriculum and syllabus as satisfactory one and commend that it do have scope for internship/training/research. But certain employers have the opinion that unless the structure of curriculum and syllabus is remoulded and developed, an imbalance between theory and application will be left.
