REPORT

A department meeting was held on 1 January 2020 at 1:30 PM in the department. The certificate course titled 'Indian Constitution' started on 6th January 2020 concluded with the examination on 5th February 2020. The course began with an inaugural session where Dr. R Sunilkumar (Principal, SNC Kollam) inaugurated the program officially. Dr. Archana Arun (HOD Dept. of Political Science) gave the presidential address. The very first class was handled by Prof. Dr. Shaji Varkey (HOD, Dept. of Political science, University of Kerala, Trivandrum). The consecutive classes were handled by experts in the field of Indian Constitution. A total of thirty classes were given to the students, out of which there were twenty-two live classes and the rest eight classes were assigned with projects as instructed by their teachers. Apart from the classes taken by experts, the students were also provided with study materials which had detailed notes about their topics. After the completion of class, the students were given an examination of three-hour duration out of 80 marks. All students attended the examination and gained above fifty percent marks thereby passing the course. After course the students were provided with online form to submit their feedback about the course they attended. A very good and positive feedback was received from the side of students making the program a grand success.

Programme Outcome

The programme aims at promote democratic values among the students and to familiarise them with the basic structure of our polity. Knowledge enriched with long cherished ideas resolve lead the students to develop citizenship qualities and to critical analysis of the political process.

The certificate programme will help the students to understand how governments operate and interact, the impact of government policies upon economic stability and growth, and how laws effect social and political change.

Undergraduate political science students preserved participate in government or nonprofits organizations in the form of internships to prepare for their careers.

The political science students be accomplished of participate in courses spanning the sub-fields of Indian constitution and Indian Government, political processes, judicial behaviour, political theory, comparative politics as well as public administration, state and local government.

Occupational opportunities include government administration, politics and campaigns, public policy, non-profit organizations, media studies and journalism. Students are also prepared to pursue Post- graduate programs in area studies, Environment studies law and diplomacy.

The students are taught about how political power is distributed, different governments operate and interact and rules are made and enforced. The programme explore both the "who" of politics (such as politicians, international organizations, and the public) and the "how" (such as elections, political institutions, and public administration).
