The Hindi students consider their syllabus as a best one and they put forward some suggestions when we consider them it can be seen that their suggestion and opinion are not excellent one. So it reveals that an improvisation of syllabus is essential.

Teacher's Feedback on Programme for Curriculum Evaluation (2020-21)

Result of the feedback analysis carried out on a 5-point scale

Most of the Teachers opined we have sufficient number of reference/ study materials in our Library in accordance with the syllabus. Regarding the syllabus they feel well and suitable and our Library holds books with well explained chapters with tables and graph. But some teachers disagree with the area of the time schedules for subject coverage and the benefit of the subject for higher education.

Alumni Feedback on Programme for Curriculum
Evaluation(2020-21)
Result of the feedback analysis carried out on a 5-point scale

Though most of the Alumni members rated highest regarding to extra learning/self learning ; a minority disagreed with it. Their opinion is that the programme should help the students for free thinking. So the Curriculum should be revised. So that it would accelerate free thinking.

About the competency of the Curriculum the employers rated highest. They see scope in the curriculum for internship/training research. But the suggestions of the minority is notable. Their opinion that the syllabus must be developed to make balance between Theory and Application.

Action Plan Report

- 1) Principal has clearly communicated the suggestions received from the responses to teaching and non-teaching staff.
- 2) Although the teachers are the members of the Board of Studies and Curriculum reform committee of Kerala University , there were so many limitations to follow perfectly.
- 3) Various Certificate Courses are conducted for achieving the highest level of higher studies of the students.
- 4) Make effort to improve the process of teaching and learning.
