ACTION TAKEN REPORT

Suggestions are taken seriously and communicated to the teaching and non-teaching staff via Principal. Since it is mandatory for the college to strictly abide by the Kerala University Syllabus and many of the teaching staffs included in the University Board of Studies are able to make their suggestions and changes according to the feedback received while restructuring the syllabi. Different certificate/Add on courses are introduced in the department for making the students equipped for higher education, employment. Extra classes are provided for enhancing the communication skills of the students.
