

Sree Narayana College, Kollam.

Report of the Debate Club, 2021- 2022.

The academic year 2021-22 was on the online mode and this resulted in the club in engaging itself in an online mode for its interactions with the students. The pandemic, covid - 19 however did not affect the conduct of the club. The inaugural ceremony of the club was arranged via Google Meet on 28.05.2021 and this resulted in a wider range of audience including the public participation, which in turn made the session enriched. The chief guest of the programme was, Dr M.S Noufal, Associate professor of Malayalam, Mannaniya College, Thiruvananthapuram. During the inaugural session, he stressed on the necessity of a culture centered on debates and how it can nourish and boost divergent thinking skills amongst the student community. At a time when the world had come to a stand still owing to the pandemic, he encouraged the use of online media to facilitate interaction and discussions. Furthermore, his speech also incorporated thoughts on the modes of conduct of in a debate session and the ethical practices associated with it. The session also turned out to be commemorative, as the chief guest also narrated on his experiences on his Alma Mater, Sree Narayana College, Kollam.

The day also witnessed a debate session on the same day in the evening. Owing to the fact that it was an online mode, it provided ample opportunity to the faculty, students and even the public to witness the debate session. The title of the debate was on Online Education, with teams for and against the notion. The session was chaired by the college Principal, Sri. Dr. R Sunil Kumar. The debate club coordinator, Dr. Smitha Prakash, offered an introduction to the topic of debate and its current relevance. Sri. Arun Prasad.R, Assistant professor, Department of English, acted as a moderator of the debate. The debate extended for a longer time as the participants engaged in a heated debate over the topic. Once the debate was completed the members of the club engaged in a discussion on the debate and the valuable suggestions were then offered to the participants. The chief guest substantiated the valid thoughts on the conduct of the debate. Later the winners of the debate were announced in the WhatsApp group dedicated to the conduct of the club. Mr. Harivind Nath, II MA Economics, was selected as the best debater. The team consisting of Harivind Nath and Ms. Femina Thomas (III BA Journalism) was selected as the best team.
